

Your home likely will be the biggest investment of your life. From the windows and roof to paint and plumbing, you'll do a lot to protect it.

But what about protecting your biggest asset: you? An injury or illness could keep you from earning a paycheck – the means to pay your mortgage.

Disability income insurance can help relieve the strain on your finances if, in the future, you can't work because of an injury or illness.

Just think: Protecting a $1,600/month mortgage payment could cost as little as $31.56/month. That's peace of mind for about $1 per day.¹

Protect your mortgage and the roof over your head with an Assurity Century+ Disability Income Insurance policy.

Protecting a $1,600/month mortgage could cost as little as
